

Bulletin Board Policy

Moorestown Library strives to strengthen our community by inspiring and supporting learning, literacy, creativity, and expression.

We are pleased to provide bulletin board space for flyers and promotional material announcing non-profit community activities for cultural purposes. Materials may be submitted to the Library for display on the Community Bulletin Board.

1. No promotional literature may be placed in the Library without permission of the Library Director or his/her designated representative.
2. The following promotional literature will not be permitted under any circumstances:
 - a. Advertisement for a profit-making business
 - b. Advertisement for anything for sale by an individual or business
 - c. Literature that specifically endorses one or more political parties or candidate in any local, state, or federal election.
 - d. Religious materials that endorse or denigrate any faith or religion.
 - e. Any religious materials endorsing or advertising a specific faith or religious service particular to that faith except for nonprofit religious organizations may promote events that are strictly social or charitable in nature including charity events or community dinners.

Adopted by the Moorestown Library Board of Trustees on 4.26.2023